

Bylaws amendment 6

- 9. Executive Committee of the UFC: The ~~executive committee shall comprise:~~
- A. ~~The three Co-Chairs of the UFC, who shall serve as co-chairs of the Executive Committee.~~
- B. ~~and~~ The heads of the faculty governance legislative bodies at all campuses from which a Co-Chair does not come. ~~shall automatically serve as members of the Executive Committee of the Council.~~
- C. ~~Prior to July 1st each year or another date set by action of the UFC, the voting members of the Council, as it will be constituted in the ensuing year, shall elect the remaining members of the Executive Committee by mail or electronic ballot using the following procedure. Members of the Council representing Bloomington shall nominate and elect two of their number to the Executive Committee. Members of the Council representing Indianapolis shall nominate and elect two of their number to the Executive Committee. Members of the Council representing the other campuses, in a fashion determined by the Regional Faculty Caucus, shall collectively nominate and elect one of their number to the Executive Committee. Two additional members elected by the Bloomington Faculty Council, two additional members elected by the IUPUI Faculty Council, and one additional member elected by the Regional Faculty Caucus, all of whom must be members of the UFC.~~
- ~~The term of office of the Co-Chairs and of members of the Executive Committee shall be one year, commencing July 1st of the year of their election and concluding June 30th of the following year. Co-Chairs and members of the Executive Committee can serve repeated terms if that is allowed under the Constitution and/or Bylaws of the campus from which they come.~~

Reasons: Deletes confusing and redundant language and replaces it with simplified language.