Re: ACA-78, Transfer Credit Related to Military Service

A. The UFC Policy Review Committee has reviewed ACA-78, Transfer Credit Related to Military Service, and finds:

1. The faculty have primary legislative authority over policies determining academic credit for students under the Constitution, but that authority is shared with university administrators and limited federal law.
2. Routine updating of ACA-82 is appropriate to reflect changes in federal regulations.

B. The policy update proposal has been circulated for comment.

The amendment has been developed in consultation with the university chief policy officer, the university transfer office, and the Center for Veteran and Military Students and circulated among campus academic affairs officers.

C. The Committee moves that the UFC Amend ACA-78 as set forth in the accompanying document.
